BALKAN ENVOYS WILL SOON LEAVE LONDON

Greek Premier Declares He Will Leave Before the End of the Week

Many Delegates Believe Allies Will Await Answer of New Turkish Cabinet

ALLIES HOLD LONG MEETING

LONDON, JAN. 28.—With the presentation of their note to the Turkish delegation, the date for which, however, has not yet been fixed, some of the Balkan delegates consider that their missions in London is ended. The Greek premier, Venizelos, announced tonight that he would leave before the end of the week and the others within the next few days. The financial advisers and military officers attached to the Bulgarian delegation will start for home tomorrow.

Despite this the diplomats have not given up hope and many still think the Balkan note is another attempt to exercise pressure on Turkey and that the allies really intend to await the answer of the new Turkish cabinet to the joint note of Europe a course which the powers have always advised.

Have, Long Discussion.

The meeting of the allies today lasted five hours and the discussion was animated. The delegates reviewed the whole situation and debated both sides of the question—the resumption of the war and the policy of delay trusting to time to solve the difficulties. The head of each delegation reported the conversation which he had had with Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, and reference was made again to the advice of the ambassador to observe prudence and moderation. This greatly strengthened the arguments of that section favoring procrastination, their view being that after the powers note to Turkey, which was in favor of the terms of the allies in the latter continued to follow Europe's advice, Europe would continue to give its support.

The note was left with Stojan Novakovitch, head of the Servian delegation, the delegates "entrusting him to choose an opportune moment for its presentation."

Some believe that he will present it tomorrow. Others are of the opinion that this particular form was adopted with the object of avoiding an immediate rupture and giving Turkey time to reply to the powers.

Drafting Reply in French.

Constantinople, Jan. 28.—Officials of the foreign office are engaged in drafting in French the text of Turkey's reply to the joint note of the powers. It is expected that their reply will be ready tomorrow.

Further Concessions "Impossible."

The Constantinople correspondent of the Chronicle learns that the porte's reply to the powers will express regret that it is impossible to make further concessions.

A well informed correspondent at Tilflis says that Russia has fully mobilized a force of nearly 70,000 men on the Turkish frontier.

An Odessa despatch to the Daily News, reports that the Armenians of Bitlis, Van and Mush are in peril and are appealing for Russian aid through the Russian consuls. It is generally believed according to the correspondent that Russian occupation of the Turkish-Armenian districts is inevitable.

Conflict at Tchatalja.

Vienna, Jan. 28.—Constantinople despatches report a bloody conflict at Tchatalja between the adherents of the late Nazim Pasha and supporters of the Young Turks, and also that Abuk Pasha, who is known as a sympathizer of Nazim Pasha, is marching on Constantinople with the fourth army corps.

These reports have not been confirmed.

The event reluctance of the Balkan allies to resort to a resumption of hostilities is not probably due to their failure to arrange the difficulty with Rumania. Dr. Daneff, head of the Bulgarian delegation who remains in London will have another conference today with M. Mishu, the Rumanian minister to Great Britain on the subject of the Russian claims.

A rumor is in circulation in Sofia that Rumania is about to present an ultimatum to Bulgaria. The Rumanian government has just arranged for an advance of $10,000,000 from a German syndicate and Russia has conferred the order of the white eagle of the Rumanian premier, Titu Majoresco.

The Vienna Reichpost asserts that Bulgaria is willing to concede the Rumania territorial claims, provided Rumania will take an active share in the military operations against Turkey.

Houston, Texas, Jan. 28.—W. S. Heer, professional of Guthrie, Okla., turned in high score today in the Sunny South handicap breaking 196 out of a possible 200 targets, the amateurs George Crosby of O'Fallon, Ill., and Bart Lewis of Auburn, Ill., tied for high honors with 190.

ARIZONA'S MESSENGER FINALLY ARRIVES

DELIVERS STATE'S ELECTORAL VOTE AT WASHINGTON DAY LATE

Says Lawyer Told Him to Deliver Vote Feb. 1—Excuse is Considered Sufficient by Washington Officials.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 28.—Wilbur T. Webb, Arizona's electoral vote messenger, for whom Senators Ashurst and Smith have been searching by telegraph for two days, delivered the official vote of the state to the vice-president's office late today. Although a day late, the excuse Mr. Webb offered for his tardiness was considered sufficient to entitle him to the mileage of $642.73 and to entitle the state to the counting of its vote in the electoral college.

Mr. Webb said he reached New York early today. At breakfast he picked up a newspaper and read with surprise that the senate was searching the country for him. He immediately telegraphed to Senator Ashurst and took the next train for Washington.

"I didn't know anything about the law," said Webb, who is a sun-burned rancher and cattleman, "so I got a lawyer friend to draw me up a set of instructions. He told me I had to deliver the vote to Washington, Feb. 1, and so I have been taking my time to get here. It spoiled my appetite for breakfast, though, when I saw how badly I was wanted this morning."

Mr. Webb was escorted by a body of newspaper men when he went to draw his money, but no objection was raised at the disbursing office and he offered a sigh of relief.

The votes are now in the hands of the senate and ready to be canvassed at the joint session of the house and senate, Feb. 12.

NEW PROFESSION OF WE'FARE WORK IS EXPLAINED BY LEADER

Persons Properly Equipped for This Work Have No Trouble in Commanding Large Salaries.

New York, Jan. 28.—Welfare work, the new profession, was exploited to day before the annual meeting of the National Civic Federation by William R. Wilcox, head of the Welfare Department of the organization. Persons properly equiped for this work, Mr. Wilcox said, may demand large salaries. He told of a request for a welfare director that came to his department from a manufacturer employing 3,500 persons who was willing to pay $7,000 a year.

The report of the committee on reform in legal procedure presented by Alton B. Parker, urged the federation to oppose a joint congressional resolution providing for determination by popular vote of the question whether an unconstitutional act should stand as law when the United States supreme court declared it unconstitutional.

The committee favor a senate bill making it a misdemeanor for senators, representatives or delegates to receive compensation or to act as counsel in matters where the United States is interested.

DYING BANDIT REVEALS HIS IDENTITY TO MINISTER

Was About To Return to Holland and Claim an Inheritance of $30,000—Had Been Adopted by Mother of His Companion.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Bartell Peter Dorendos and not Peter Boore was the real name of the bandit, who was shot while attempting a holdup last night, and who died to day. He was born in Holland, and was about to return there to claim an inheritance of about $30,000. These statements were the features of a dying confession the highwayman made to Rev. Ballons, superintedent of the hospital, who reported it to the police tonight. Dorendos said that he had been adopted as a member of her family by the mother of his companion, Albert Boore, which led to his calling himself Peter Boore. The statement of Dorendos was interrupted by his death, Mr. Ballons said.

TAFT GIVES FINAL RECEPTION TO CONGRESS

Washington, Jan. 28.—President Taft bade social farewell to members of the senate and house of representatives at the white house tonight. The occasion was the final reception of the Taft administration in honor of congress. The white house was thronged with senators and representatives with their ladies and other invited guests. The president with Mrs. Taft at his side was assisted by the ladies of the cabinet and he extended a warm greeting to each guest in the receiving line in the blue room. Only one more reception will be given by the President and Mrs. Taft, that to the army and navy on the evening of February 4th.

MAY RETAIN OLYMPIC PRIZES.

Stockholm, Jan. 28.—Swedish newspapers commenting on the disclosure that James Thorpe was a professional athlete when he competed in the Olympic games held here last summer, commended the honesty displayed by the Americans in making the fact known.

Leading authorities in the field of sport express the opinion that Thorpe is entitled to retain the prizes he won in the pentathlon and decathlon events, as his status as an amateur has been raised too late.

SPRINGFIELD, JAN. 28.—Members of the house of the Illinois legislature tonight passed the 65th ballot mark, without breaking the speakership deadlock. After taking three roll calls on the speakership the house adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning when the balloting will be resumed. As an indication that the members generally did not expect to break tonight, the first roll call, taken late this afternoon, showed fifteen absentees. Some of these, however, were prevented from being present by a belated train from Chicago. Representative John M. Rapp of Fairfield, the Democratic candidate who had been heralded as the man who would break the deadlock, on the 63rd ballot received but sixty votes of the seventy-seven necessary to elect. On the 64th ballot Rapp dropped to fifty-eight and on the 65th ballot the Fairfield man got but fifty-six votes, Representative Homer Tice of Greenview, the Republican speakership candidate received 47 votes on each of these three ballots. Rapp, however, today received three new votes which makes a total of 77 members that have voted for him on different ballots since the legislature convened January 8th.

New Rapp Men.

The new men who voted for Rapp today were Representatives Thomas Gorman of Peoria, Daniel O'Connell of Kinsman and W. W. McCormick, of Smdem. German voted for Rapp on two ballots and McCormick for but one, while O'Connell voted each of the three ballots for Rapp.

The galleries of the house were packed with spectators who anticipated a spectacular breaking of the deadlock but aside from a statement by Representative Morton Dennison Hull of Chicago and the introduction of a resolution by Representative Lucas I. Butts of Peoria, the session was devoid of even passing interest.

Representative Butts' resolution asked that the house remain in session five days a week until the deadlock was broken. It was lost on a viva voce vote. Representative Hull arose to take issue with certain newspaper criticism which he said had been directed at him and other Republican members by a Chicago afternoon newspaper.

Ryan's Absence Due to Injuries.

The attention of the house was called to the absence fo Representative Frank Ryan, one of the Democratic candidates for speaker by Representative J. H. Farrell of Chicago and on his motion a committee was appointed to draft suitable resolutions of sympathy. Mr. Ryan was painfully injured in the wreck of a Chicago bound train last week, aboard which were Former Speaker Edward D. Shurtleff and several other members of the legislature. It was announced that while Representative Shurtleff was suffering by reason of his experience in the wreck the former speaker would be present at the session tomorrow.

Senate Session is Brief.

The senate met at five o'clock this afternoon and two minutes later adjourned until tomorrow morning.

Lieutenant Governor Oglesby announced the receipt of Attorney General Stead's opinion that the senate may proceed to introduce bills and transact other legislation without waiting for the house to organize.

The lieutenant-governor also laid before the senate a communication from Herbert Myrick, of New Fork, president of the co-operative finance league, transmitting a coppy of a standard bill co-operative finance under state laws. The bill was referred to the committee on agriculture. It consists of two parts the first providing for the creation of co-operative people's banks for personal credits and the second providing for co-operative land banks for realty credits.

REPORT GIVES DETAILS OF FIGHT WITH MOROS

FIFTY MOROS ARE KILLED IN FIGHT WITH U. S. TROOPS

Moros Position Was Strongly Defended by Walls, Bamboo Entanglements and Ditches—Troops Make Brave Charge.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 28.—Forty or fifty Moros died in struggle which took place in the Philippines six miles west of the City of Jolo last Thursday, details of which have just reached the war department from Major General Bell, commanding the Philippine divsion. Following up his proclamation of two years ago, ordering the disarming of all of the natives of Jolo group, General Pershing according to the report despatched Col. Eben Swift of the Eighth Calvary to clear up the country in the neighborhood of Jolo. An expedition was ordered under command of Patrick McNally captain of the Philippine scouts, who lost his life in the fight which followed. The expedition ocnsisted of the Fourteenth Thirty-first and Fortieth companies of Philippine scouts, a detachment of American troops with a field gun and some of the Moro Philippine constabulary, making practically a full battalion of troops.

This force was sent against a cotta, six miles west of Jolo where a large band of Moros had been causing menace to the city and garrison at Taglibi for a long time. The Moros had not hesitated to attack the American troops in camp and it was decided to break the power of the chief, Sahipa. The Moro position was strongly defended by walls, bamboo entanglements and deep ditches. General Pershing reported that the attacking force was handled with great skill and the final assault, which carried the cotta, characterized many individual acts of gallantry.

MINNEAPOLIS BARBER HELD FOR WOMAN'S DEATH

Police Claim Man Has Confessed to Crime—Is Said to Have Fired Five Shots at the Woman.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 28.—Mrs. George Bevington, wife of a hotel proprietor at Frederick, Wis., north of here is dead and Hugh Sorenson, a barber at that place, is in jail, charged with the murder. The police claim that he has confessed to the crime.

Yesterday Mrs. Bevington brought her husband to a hospital in Minneapolis where he underwent a serious operation. Today on her return home she found Sorenson in her room, called a policeman and the man was ejected. As soon as the officer had departed Sorenson returned, according to the story he is alleged to have told the police and fired five shots at the women with a revolver, three of them taking effect killing Mrs. Bevington instantly. He was arrested shortly after the shooting.

The only reason Sorenson gave for his act the officers say, was that he was intoxicated.

NORTH CAROLINA GIVES APPROVAL TO DIRECT ELECTION OF SENATORS

District of Six States Have so Far Been Favorably Recorded on This Proposition.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Of deep significance because of its bearing upon the probable fate of the proposed constitutional amendment providing for the direct election of senators, is the fact reported to the state department officially that the legislature of North Carolina had given its approval to the proposition. It had been freely predicted that the southern states unanimously would enact the proposed amendment because of its implied extension of federal authority over the state elections. The addition of North Carolina makes a district of six states so far favorably recorded on the proposition.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 28.—Ten girls ranging in age from 8 to 16 bared their arms to the surgeons' knife to furnish skin to heal the burns of Roba Hainds, 12 years old, who was all but burned to death Christmas day in a fire which brought death to her father, mother and baby sister and destroyed the Hainds farm house near Arnett, Okla.

Chairman Pujo of money trust investigating committee began analyses of testimony in preparation of his report.

Representative Rothermel was chosen member of appropriations committee.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 28.—Division that exists within Democratic ranks over granting independence to the Philippines was emphasized in the house today when American administration in the islands was made the subject of a severe attack by Representative W. A. Jones of Virginia, chairman of the house committee on insular affairs. Representative Jones' suggestions for Philippine independence said to have been considered favorably by President-elect Wilson were opposed by Representative Shirley, Democrat of Kentucky, while criticisms of President Taft and Governor General Cameron Forbes brought a sharp reply from Representative Murray, Democrat of Massachusetts.

The speech by Mr. Jones was both a demand for independence and a severe arraignment of American administration in the islands.

Representative Murray charged him with having "slandered" Cameron Forbes," and "defamed President Taft." Mr. Jones denied these charges, but insisted the administration of affairs in the islands had violated at least the spirit of the laws governing the Philippines.

Speech Brings Fight.

The fight that ensued over Mr. Jones' speech brought out the fact that an investigation of Philippine affairs had recently been discussed by the house committee on insular affairs, but no action was taken. Representative Murray a member of the committee declared that had he known Chairman Jones intended to make a speech "charging Governor Forbes with being a 'grafter' he would have insisted on having Governor Forbes brought before the committee where he could reply to the attacks.

"I have not charged Governor Forbes with being a grafter," retorted Mr. Jones.

"You have been unutterably unjust to him in the speech you have made,'" said Mr. Murray.

Mr. Murray further declared many members of the insular committee "were wondering if it is wise to commit ourselves and the party to the support of the Jones bill which would give the Filipinos independence in eight years. He declared the United States should not withdraw from the Philippines until it had made treaties of neutrality with other nations so Japan could not seize the islands.

COL. LEWIS ADDRESSES CHICAGO TRAFFIC CLUB

DECLARES GOVERNMENT IS REGULATION RUN MAD

Says National Regulation Has Now Become National Strangulation of Many Noble Men and Many Worthy Things.

CHICAGO, JAN. 28.—Criticism of government espionage over private property and private interests was the burden of an address here tonight by Col. James Hamilton Lewis, Democratic candidate for United States senator from Illinois, for the long term before the Chicago Traffic club.

"The business of tomorrow," said Col. Lewis, "is to correct the errors of the government's business of yesterday. One of these is government regulation run mad. This nation has forgotten the doctrine of state sovereignty in home affairs and in the fascination of usurped national authority has plunged into regulating the citizen in his private conduct and in the conduct of his personal affairs until it has regulated business on to the verge of confiscation and regulated the citizen to the plane of a dependent on governmental favor, or as the victim of its spies and persecutions.

"If the reports of the different departments of the federal government can be relied upon there is now existing in this nation, under the designation of "agent," 46,000 individuals who serve as spies, detectives, investigators, watchers, decoys, betrayers, silent accusers and secret slanderers of everything which pertains to the citizen in America.

"No man engaged in any large undertaking but who now is presumed by the government to be fraud. No small business man can aspire to equality of competition except as the government shall permit him to do so. National regulation has now become national strangulation of many noble men and many worthy things.

"What this country needs is that there shall be more men over the government and less government over the men, more liberty to the state and to the citizen in private and personal conduct and less of national supervision, suspicion and condemnation of personal individual liberty and commercial liberty."

ADVOCATE ESTABLISHMENT OF MUTUAL INSURANCE ORGANIZATION

Delegates to Annual State Convention of Master Plumbers Also Recommend Municipal Code of Standard Plumbing.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 28.—The establishment of a mutual insurance organization with which to divide the burdens imposed by the workmen's compensation act, and the adoption of legislation by which a municipal code of standard plumbing would be inaugurated were recommended today by delegates to the annual state convention of the Master Plumbers.

Following the address of welcome by Mayor Schnepp, and the reply by T. E. Walters, of Aurora, the annual reports of officers were read.

The establishment of a uniform standard of plumbing work, with a state board of plumbing examiners, was a proposal of President W. J. Hillard of Elmhurst. It was proposed by the execution that the plan be submitted to the state legislature with the recommendation that the prospective legislation should exempt Chicago which is already under a satisfactory code of standard plumbing. The abolition of local plumbing examining boards was recommended, the placing of a plumber on the state board of health and the establishment of state board of examiners being suggested as a better substitute.

SAY CONFESSION WAS EXTRACTED BY THIRD DEGREE

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 28.—That severe third degree methods were used by the police to extract a confession, later repudiated, from Barbara Gladys Arnold, that she had fired the Hotel Berlin, November 1st causing the death of three persons was the testimony of Rev. Wm. J. Williamson, the 16 year old girl's former employer at the girl's trial today on a charge of first degree arson in an alleged attempt to set fire to Widermer hotel, November 5th. The minister said that he was present when the third degree methods brought the alleged confession. A few days later the girl denied that she caused the fire.

ONE KILLED; MANY INJURED IN RIOT

Strikers From Rankin Steel Plant and Deputy Sheriffs Clash

NO STRIKERS INJURED

Rankin is Scene of Worst Riot Since Great Steel Riots at Homestead in 1892

DEPUTIES ARE DRIVEN BACK

PITTSBURG, PA., JAN 28.—Deputy Sheriffs and strikers from the Rankin plant of the American Steel and Wire Company, a subsidiary of the United States steel corporation clashed tonight, one man, George Kezley, being killed and twelve persons injured fatally. All wounded except two deputy sheriffs and a policeman were spectators. Not a striker was injured, as far as can be learned.

The officers armed with revolvers and rifles, and the strikers, armed with revolvers and stones, battled for an hour within an area of two blocks.

The rioting ended when the deputy sheriffs retreated within the fence of the mill.

Rankin, the scene of the riot is almost directly across the Monongahela river from Homestead where the great steel riots of 1892 occurred The trouble tonight is the first serious riot since that time. The strikers 3000 in number, held a meeting late tonight in a public hall to consider the situation. When they adjourned many of them walked down Hawkins avenue. About the same time Sheriff Bruff and eighty deputies left the wire mills and marched towards Hawkins avenue.

Drive Deputies Back.

The two forces met and stopped. Some one picked a piece of coal from a passing wagon and threw it into the crowd of strikers.

In a twinkling the air was filled with coal, stones and bullets. The deputies fired a number of volleys with their revolvers but were steadily forced back to the mill. Within 15 minutes the deputies emerged from the mill armed with guns loaded with buckshot. With the second appearanace of the deputies the battle was renewed. Almost every window facing Hawkins avenue for a distance of three squares was broken and several persons in the house were injured. A crash of the guns breaking glass and screams from men and women infuriated the strikers. They desperately charged the officers and the latter again retreated behind the walls, taking with them the wounded deputy sheriffs and the Rankin chief of police.

Tonight the borough is quiet.

Had No Right Outside Mill

It developed tonight that the deputies were not employed by the county, but had been appointed by the Rankin authorities. According to Chief of Police Barnett the deputies had no right outside the mill.

Sheriff Bruff tonight took personal charge of the situation. In a statement the sheriff said the officers were not deputy sheriffs, but were special deputies.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Mrs. Margaret Colwell entertained the members of the Woman's Country club of Orleans at her home in Alexander Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Colwell just recently became a member of the club and this was the first time that she has acted as hostess to its members. A large number of the members and friends were in attendance and the afternoon proved a most enjoyable one. The Colwell home was very prettily decorated for the occasion in a color scheme of white and pink, hot house flowers being used to a pretty effect. The program for the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. James Holmes, who gave an outline of the life of James Russell Lowell and his work and also gave a number of readings from Lowell. The other paper was by Mrs. James Bobyns, on the subject: "At Home With My Books." At the roll call each one present answered with a quotation from Lowell and in the quarterly election of officers of the club Mrs. Magill was selected as president and Mrs. James Dobyns as secretary. Following the regular program a very delightful social hour was enjoyed when delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Louise White entertained last night at her home on South Church street in honor of Miss May Stout, who is soon to wed Mr. Leo Doolin. It was a miscellaneous shower and the bride to be received a number of useful gifts. Games of various kinds were indulged in and the prizes were won by Misses Lillian White and Vesta Tiff. Elaborate refreshments were served and the whole event was one of special pleasure.

Tuesday night a number of members of Jacksonville lodge, Knights of Columbus, and their friends, enjoyed a dance at Degen's hall on South Main street. A very delightful dancing program was given and the evening proved most pleasant.

HOUSE FAILS TO BREAK DEADLOCK

A copy of the regular periodical publication of the agricultural institute of Rome was referred to the agricultural committee.

Progressives Reported Split.

It was reported that insurgency had broken out in the Progressive ranks and that a split in the vote of that band of twenty-five is scheduled to take place unless Rapp is elected early in the day. At least six Progressives are said to have determined to vote for John Graunau, of Chicago, for speaker on the third roll call if the balloting continues that long without it becoming apparent that Rapp can win.

Feel That Break is Near.

Every indication tonight pointed to important developments tomorrow. The tenseness of the situation is apparent where ever members of the house congregated. It was in the air that the end of the prolonged deadlock is at hand.

Friends of John M. Rapp were taking advantage of the general spirit of expectation. They insisted that their candidate is sure of election tomorrow and urged the members to board the band wagon while a few empty seats remained.

On the other hand members who do not look with favor upon the Rapp boom persistently circulated the story that this afternoon's failure marked Rapp's finish and he is already out of the race. They are prepared for the final effort in behalf of Rapp tomorrow morning and are awaiting with ill-concealed excitement and developments to follow.

No one professes to know what will happen if the Rapp bubble bursts as they expect it to do. This, they consider will prove the psychological moment when the new speaker will be made.

Friends of Hubbard, Karch, Clyne and McKinley all are hopeful their respective favority will be the fortunate one. ther members whose names have not yet appeared in the roll calls still are hopeful that the expected dark horse will come wholly from outside the field, as it has been formed up to the present time.

A flood of telegrams comin from all parts of the state, impressed upon the assemblymen tonight the urgent necessity for immediate action.

MISS RUBY NEVILLE GIVES LECTURE ON "PRESENT DAY EGYPT"

Entertains Large Audience at Public Library Tuesday Evening.

Miss Ruby Neville, an instructor at the Woman's college, gave a very interesting lecture at the public library Tuesday evening on the subject: "Present Day Egypt." Quite a large number was present and the lecture proved one of unusual interest. Dr. R. O. Post, pastor of the Congregational church, acted as chairman for the evening and introduced Miss Neville and at the close of the address Rev. L. H. Davis extended her a vote of thanks for the audience.

The lecture was founded on a trip which Miss Neville took through Egypt two years ago and was illustrated with a series of excellently colored photographs which she took on the trip. Her lecture was very instructive as well as entertaining as she told of the habits and industries of the people and beginning at Cairo took her audience on a trip up the Nile, showing vivid pictures of the pyramids, the sphinx and the ruins of many temples, the building of which dates back many hundreds of years before Christ. In one picture of the pyramids was shown how abrupt the change from fertile land to the desert in this country. Just a few rocks are in evidence on the edge and from that point on there is nothing but a barren waste of sand. Among the illustrations were street scenes in Cairo, a number of mummy cases in the Cairo museum, the great dam that spans the Nile, the Mosque of Mohammed Allah, where thousands of Mohammedans come to pray and which is held as a very sacred place by them, native women carrying water and many other interesting scenes.

The next lecture of this series will be given at the library Tuesday, Feb. 4, when "Little Glimpses of Fascinating Books" will be given by Miss Fannie Wakely, Dr. A. B. Morey and Thomas H. Quigley.

THE SPECIAL ELECTION.

The special election called by the city council to give the people a chance to declare their wishes on the contract with the Jacksonville Water Co., will be held next Tuesday. The question is one of importance to every citizen and there should be a large vote on the proposition. The proposed contract is for a period of eighteen months and one of the best reasons for its approval is the fact that if the contract is entered into then all litigaion between the company and the city stops. Otherwise the matter may drag on through the courts for years entailing great expense to the city. Aside from this there is always the uncertainty as to the result of a case in court, a fact which Mr. Ballatti in a recent article well emphasized.

By terms of the proposed contract the city will not enter into any partnership with the company and will not give up any of its rights. The plan is simply this that the company will pump water from its wells into the city reservoir and the city will attend to all details of distribution and will pay the company one-half of the revenues accruing. The city will pay nothing for water used at fires or in flushing sewers.

FAREWELL DINNER GIVEN TO WILSON.

Atlantic City, Jan. 28.—President elect Wilson tonight attended a farewell dinner given in his honor by members of the state senate. Republicans and Democrats alike attended and only members of the senate were admitted. At it was intended that none of the speeches was to be repeated an informal program of diversiono was diverted

The governor's speech, it was learned from some of the diners, was largely a reminiscence of his New Jersey administration though he took occasion to emphasize again his interest in the passage of the corporation bills. The governor is reported to have said that Nek Jersey now had its opportunity to stand in the front rank of Progressive state in accomplishing a reform upon which the whole country had set its mind. In referring to the fight in other states for Progressive legislation, the governor, according to persons present lauded the efforts of Senator LaFollette in that cause.

Recommends Currency Resolution.

The issue of paper legal tender based on government, state and municipal bonds and backed by a gold reserve of at least 20 per cent, was recommended as the resolution of the currency problem by W. H. Berry, former state treasurer of Pennsylvania, on the stand today before the currency committee of the house. Mr. Berry told the committee that the evil of the present system was an insufficient supply of legal tender reserve to support the extended credit demanded by business interests of the country. He blamed the banking laws for the accumulation of money in the reserve cities.

Still Fight Appointments.

The fight over President Taft's appointments was on in earnest in the senate today and for six hours, Republicans and Democrats battled behind closed doors, the former demanding action on the nominations and the latter fillbustering to prevent it. When adjournment came this evening it was expected that the fight would be renewed tomorrow, unless Republican leaders should decide to rest on the record made today. Democratic senators consistently refused to take the nominations in regular order and professed themselves willing to take the blame for the delay in action of the 1400 or more pending appointments. The opening of the Republican fight followed a causcus early in the day at which it was determined to force the issue against the Democrats and compel them either to yield on their opposition or to openly adopt methods of delay and obstruction.

As a result of the development of the filibuster, intimations were given tonight by Republican senators that the fight undoubtedly will extend into President-elect Wilson's administration and reflected in the senate's action on many of his appointments. Republicans remained in the senate chamber throughout the day sending the sergeant-at-arms after missing Democrats when the latter attempted to break a quorum. Preparations were made for a night session but early in the evening it was determined to adjourn and decide tomorrow whether the contest should be continued.

$100,000,000 From Income Tax.

A feature of the tariff revision program of the extra session of congress may include the raising of $100,000,000 from an income tax, including the corporation tax as part of the $309,000,000 basis of revenue from the tariff. Representative Hull of Tennessee, a Democratic member of the committee on ways and means, who has been active in income tax problems, plans to introduce a bill which would provide such a source of revenue.

This will be considered by the committee in connection with contemplated early ratification of the constitutional amendment to sanction income legislation. Of the necessary number of states required for ratification only two are lacking. Mr. Hull expects these to be drawn from New Jersey, Wyoming, New Mexico or West Virginia or from Florida, whose legislature, however, will not meet until April. The Democratic majority of the committee favor an income tax but in the event of failure of ratification will renew the excise tax plan as an extension of the present corporation tax law.

The committee today finished hearings on wool and it is likely the Democratic plan as embodied in the two previous Democratic wool bills will be undisturbed. This is true of all the so-called "fighting" schedules on which the Democrats went on record at this congress—wool, cotton, metal, chemical and sugar and the farmers' free list—so far as the Democratic leaders now forsee. The last of the fourteen schedules "sundries" will be taken up tomorrow.

No Commissioner of Labor.

Beginning with February 1st, the labor bureau of the department of commerce and labor will be without a commissioner, the re-appointment of Dr. Charles P. Neill by President Taft, lacking the confirmation of the senate.

Begins Analysis of Testimony.

Representative Pujo, chairman of the house money trust committee went into temporary retirement today to begin analysis of testimony taken by the committee and to prepare a report which will be submitted to the house recommending legislation to deal with the banking and currency situation.

Cooper Waxes Sarcastic.

The Washington monument was characterized as "an Egyptian Obelisk," the postoffice department building as "a cross between a cathedral and a cotton fatcory," and the pension as a "lovely red shed that disfigures Judiciary Square," in a speech in the house today by Representative Cooper of Wisconsin. Mr. Cooper spoke in defense of the proposed $2,000,000 Lincoln memorial which the house will vote on tomorrow.

ROUND THE WORLD TRIP WITH S. W. NICHOLS

PARTY OF GLOBE TROTTERS WILL START TODAY.

Letters From Much Traveled Jacksonville Citizen To Appear in Journal—Sandwich Islands Philippines, China Japan and Russia Included in Itinerary.

During the coming eight months readers of the Journal will have an opportunity to enjoy letters from a world tourist. Rev and Mrs. Arthur F. Ewert, Miss Henrietta DeSilva and S. W Nichols are to start today on the journey that has already been mentioned in the Journal.

The first objective point will be the Sanwich or Hawaiian Islands where a stop will be made from which point a letter will be sent. Excellent facilities will be enjoyed here for there are several friends residing in and near Honolulu and the party will be whirled about in fine shape.

Going thence the party will leave the shap at the Philippines where a more xetended stay will be enjoyed. The party has made great efforts to be posted in advance regarding this land which is now so much in the lime light and every endeavor will be made to see as much as possible of the country, visit the people in their homes and call on as many as possible, study conditions carefully and give such information as will be of interest to the public.

Will Visit China.

China will come next with the first landing at Hongkong, that cosmopolitan city and from that point an extended tour will be made. In this country is Rev. Charles Storrs who won golden opinions while here; in Foochow is Rev. Leonard Christian, missionary pastor of the Congregational church of this city and who has promised to show the tourists all about the place and adjacent country. This will afford a fine opportunity to see Chinese life at first hands; it is the expectation of the party to visit out of the way places and take in all that is possible of life in China.

It is hoped and expected that a meeting with Charles M. Eames and his sister can somehow be arranged and also one with Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Cunningham and that will be an additional source of interest. A large number of prominent cities will be visited n China and much of interest will be seen and a careful study of conditions made by the party. The next country visited will be Korea and here there will be much of interest as that country is now prominently before the world and its people are discussed a great deal.

In Japan the tourists expect to spend the greater part of two months roaming over the fascinating land, seeing the people at their best and worse, entering their homes and seeing all that can possibly been seen. It is the intention to be there during the cherry blossom time and enjoy the rare sights of that season. Many of the chief cities and much of the country will here be seen and enjoyed and every effort will be made to secure such information as will be of interest to the readers of the Journal.

Many Letters of Introduction.

In all the countries mentioned so far a great many letters of introduction will be used so that no time will be lost getting acquainted at any point. The missionary boards of both the Congregational and Methodist churches have been drawn on liberally and the result will be of great benefit to the travelers who will do their best to share what they see with the readers of the Journal

Leaving Japan the expectation is to enter Russia by the back door as it were, and travel across the whole length of the mighty empire by the famous Trans-Siberian railroad. The trains on this road are leisurely taking plenty of time and going at the fearful rate of about fifteen miles an hour so that one will have abundant opportunity to study conditions at many places.

Extended visits will be made in ancient Moscow and St. Petersburg so that a fund of valuable information in those places can be secured. Russia is so much of an unknown land to us of this country that anything from it will be of interest and careful observations will be made all along the line and in every place visited.

In Western Europe.

Western Europe is always interesting and this will be visited quite extensively. The attractive city of Stockholm will be the first objective point here and then on down to fascinating Copenhagen where are the works of the immortal Thoswalden. Many more attratcion abound in that land and then will come grand old Germany with all its quealth of beauty and interest. Berlin, the most beautiful place in the world with iis palaces and many opints of view will be well explored and after that other places in the vaterland will be seen.

Anything from Holland cannot fail to be of interest and there the tourists will make a stay as long as circumstances will admit and tell about in the most desirable manner possible.

Belgium with the battlefield of Waterloo will be enjoyed and then will come ever gay and delightful Paris so full of history, art and all else to make it attractive. Across the channel to London where one may stay a year and see something new every day and then it is expected that something of riral England will be enjoyed along with many historic cties and countries too many to be enumerated.

Finally the grand country of Burns will be seen and its historic ground trodden by the travelers who will see as much as they can of that wonderful and glorious land.

September 20th is the date set for the home sailing and it is expected that October 1st will see the travelers at home.

They are to sail from San Francisco on the steamship "Nile" Pacific Mail Steamship Company's teamer, and have a voyage of 27 days to Manila and after that the water rides will be shorter.

Here is a goodbye to all the persons not seen and best wishes for a happy year at home.

THE GULF COAST

The Journal:

Since promising you this sketch, I've been occupied in invoicing to discover the profit or loss of my recent enforced vacation. I gladly trace a few more lines descriptive of Southern Texas.

The capital of may recent trip was Victoria. As you locate it upon the map, you may gather the idea that it is about the southern border. You will get a larger idea when I tell you that it is 400 miles from Brownsville. Four hundred miles means twice across Illinois. But four hundred miles does not mean so much in Texas. No wonder the eloquent orator has said, "I have been all over the United States and a part of Texas". Wonder how many of you know that the extreme distance in that state is a trifle more than 900? Almost as far from Jacksonville to New York City.

Texas travelers sing of tropical beauties. But while one part is plucking violets and loafing in shirt sleeves another part may be sleighriding, or having its thousands of cattle freezing to death. Victoria is 100 miles south of New Orleans, hence it is tropical. Victoria is nearly parallel to Tampa, Floria.

In your reference to the box of flowers sent, you mispelled the river's name. I plucked them from the Guadalupe river, which empties its clear blue waters into the lower part of Matagorda Bay. In the 125 miles run from Houston to Victoria, we cross four rivers, all longer than our Illinois, viz: Trinity, Brazos, Colorado and Guadalupe. And if you move on to Brownsville, two more must be added, viz; the San Antonio and the Nueces. These all rise in central and northern Texas and provide splendid drainage for about two thirds of the state.

The soil from Houston to Edna Texas is very like our river bottoms From Edna on it is sandy and clay. In the window of the Farmers' Bank and Trust Co., you may see one product of this fertile section. A yam weighing exactly four pounds. Rice, cotton, potatoes, corn, figs, peaches, oranges, etc., are quite extensively grown within fifty miles of Victoria.

Texas is so large, and so many towns are springing up, makes the study of names an interesting one

United States regulars are patrolling our borders as far inland as Victoria. Our surveyors have recently located every foot of our line, as well as every stronghold of the Mexicans, and it is common talk down there that we will have trouble with them boforé this rebellion is done. Refugees by the caravan are coming over into the states. Never a day but what I saw scores of the pointed hats and white covered wagons headed away from the scene of war. Those that are for peace cannot raise their crops, being pillaged by the mutionous ones. So they seek refuge within the broad acres of good old Uncle Sam.

You spoke of receiving a "Spanish Dagger, among the plants sent you. I am very sorry to say that I failed to include one. It never would have gone into the little paste-board box. I heard of one on Sunday, and early Monday a friend piloted me in search of it. But some other "Northerner" beat me to it and I failed. They grow wild, sometimes three feet high, pure white, very beautiful, hence much sought after by visitors.

When I left the Guadalupe country last Thursday, radishes, lettuce, beets etc., were to be seen in every garden. Roses, violets, etc. on every hand. Fields full of farmers. Truckers planting potatoes and oats several inches high. Truly a sudden change in two days to this barren sleet-covered Illinois. Some day providence permitting, I will plant gardens and pluck January violets along the banks of the Guadalupe. Great climate country and people.

Anon, if you wish, I'll give you the record of the anniversary of Lee and Stonewall Jackson, celebrated by the the "United Daughters of the Confederacy", which I was privileged to attend. It will show you that while there is a new south, the old war spirit is still there. Yours

Hy S. Alkire.

MARKET LETTERS.

Chicago Livestock.

Chicago, Jan. 27—Oliver S. Green, with Herreid & Co., U. S. Yards, Chicago, Ill., reports the estimated receipts for Monday, Jan. 27:

Cattle—18,000.
Hogs—52,000.
Sheep—26,000.

Although the receipts of cattle were only moderate, and around 18,000 less than one week ago today, there were no urgent orders and only a liminted number of sales were made until the forenoon was well advanced. Some handy and medium weight cattle looked 10 to 15c higher, but the general market was slow and only about steady. Nine cents was paid for one car load of choice beeves averaging 1512 pounds. Two other car loads averaging 1474 at $8.90. Very few, however, at $8.25 to $8.50. The supply of well finished beeves was short and a smaller number that noted of any Monday this winter. There was only a moderate supply of stockers and feeders. Nice handy light weights sold 10c higher with plain heavy lots no more than steady. There was a better demand for fat cows and heifers and an early speculator market put them 10 to 15 cents higher. Bologna bulls strong to shade higher. Heavy weights still slow. Calves weak and generally a quarter lower than last week's best time. We quote:

Choice to prime 1450 to 1700 pound steers, $8.65 to 9.10.
Choice 1250 to 1400 pounds, $8.10 to $8.60.
Good steers, 1250 to 1300 pounds, $7.60 to $8.00.
Plain to fair beef steers, $6.85 to $7.50.
Fancy baby beef yearlings, $8.20 to $8.50.
Good to choice yearlings, $7.50 to $8.15.
Medium to good yearlings, $6.85 to $7.40.
Common to fair yearlings, $6.50 to $6.80.
Inferior steers, 850 to 950 pounds, $6.10 to $6.60.
Common steers, 750 to 850 pounds $5.85 to $6.25.
Medium and fat cows, $4.65 to $7.
Canners and cutters, $3.00 to $4.60
Heifers, $4.80 to $7.50.
Bulls, $4.80 to $6.50.
Common heavy calves to good vealers, $5.00 to $10.25.
Choice to prime vealers, $10.35 to $10.50, a few fancy reaching $10.75 and we received the outside price for some.
Selected 1000 to 1100 pound feeders, $7.15 to $7.65.
Fair to good 800 to 1000 pounds, $6.40 to $7.10.
Plain to good light, $5.75 to $6.35
Feeding heifers, poor to good, $5.25 to $5.75.
Selected stockers averaging 550 to 700 pounds, $6.75 to $7.25.
Good straight lots, $6.25 to $6.65.
Common to plain mixed, $5.35 to $5.75.
Heifers common to good, $4.75 to $5.40.

The early hog market was weak and 5c lower, but closed strong and few left unsold. Top load $7.62½, average $7.51.

The sheep and lamb market was badly demoralized and only a small number sold up to one o'clock p. m. Decline from best time last Friday, 25 to 40 cents per hundred.

Native ewes, $3.00 to $6.00.
Native lambs, $4.50 to $9.00.
Western feeding lambs, $7.00 to $8.05.
Fed western lambs, $8.15 to $8.50
Native wethers, $5.50 to $6.00.
Fed western yearlings, $7.75.
Fed western wethers, $5.75.
Fed western ewes, $3.25 to $5.25.
Bucks, $3.50 to $4.00.

Kansas City Market.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Jan. 27.—Beef producers halted a little in their search for raw material the first days of last week, long enough to let values sink down 20 to 35 cents. Buyers flocked in when the new basis had been established and by the end of the week the yards were cleaned up, and 15,000 cattle had gone out to farms and feed lots. Only 9,000 head went to this trade the same week last year. A feature last week was the large proportion of weighty feeders in the output, taken in most instances to replace cattle recently shipped to market. That class went chiefly to Illinois and Missouri. Most of the stock steers were bought at $6.00 to $7.25, and the feeders at $6.90 to $7.50, which is around $1.40 higher than one year ago. Fat cattle also met the usual slumpy market common to that class for several weeks past, values declining 10 to 25 cents for the week. The result is that shippers have been partly cured of their mad desire to liquidate poorly finished steers, the run here today being cut to 10,000 head, and light elsewhere also. Prices are steady to 10c higher today on all classes. In the case of stock cattle and feeders, dealers say the rise today is the usual Monday rise, though there is a strong buying sentiment all over the country. Stockmen are undoubtedly in the best paying business in the land, and it is natural that they should endeavor to expand their operations to the widest degree possible, not only in the production of cattle, but of hogs and sheep as well. Some prime Herefords received a bid of $8.65 here today, but the owner held out for $8.85, the highest figures considered in any trade here for three weeks. Bulk of the steers sell at $7.00 to $8.00, meal fed southerns at $5.75 to $7.25, native cows, $4.75 to $6.25, bulls $5.00 to $6.25, veal calves $9.00 to $10.50

It contains phosphates in proper proportion to insure strength of bone and frame work. In the corn belt bone development is a matter of serious consideration.

It is not a substitute for corn, but a small quantity fed in connection with corn or other grains gives a balanced ration.

It is the most economical source of digestible protein known, containing twice as much protein as oil meal and five times as much as middlings, shorts, shipstuff, or alfalfa meal.

TANKAGE i recommended by all leading experiment stations.

It is packed in one-hundred-pound burlap sack, plainly marked "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD," analysis as above.

It is the ideal feed to balance rations.

What "Sure Fatten Hog Food" Tankage Does.

It developes bone and muscle in young pigs and makes them grow. It matures a hog for market in two and three months quicker than corn alone, thereby, saving one third of the feed bill, one third of the labor, one third of the risk, increasing profits one third.

It grows beter proportioned hogs, more meat, and more fat, hence market-topper hogs. SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs ship well with small shrink.

While in nowise a medicine, it so fortifies and strengthens the system against attacks of disease germs that SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs are universally healthy hogs.

LETTER FROM PARIS.

(By Associated Press.)

Paris, Jan. 28.—M. Chaumet, the under-secretary in charge of the French post office, has inaugurated an innovation which is very pleasing to Parisians. He has decided to equip each of the 181 police kiosks in the vicinity of the Paris cab ranks with telephones. This is a great convenience, for it means that the Parisian and the large number of American residents of Paris will no longer be forced to wait at their doors until a cab or an automobile passes, or walks a considerable distance before finding a vehicle. They will be able to call up the policeman on duty day and night, in the kiosk, and by giving their address have a cab or an automobile call for the in a few minutes.

An attempt is being made among members of the American colony to do something to relieve the pitiable situation of an old man dho is the last living link with the great Napoleon. Pierre Schamel-Roy, son of an orderly officer of the Emperor, was born at the palace of Versailles August 25, 1807, and as a child was a playmate of the King of Rome, a doll given him by the little prince being still in his possession; he distinctly remembers the Emperor and his kindly ways with children. This remarkable centenarian now has to live on 30 cents a day, the pension accorded him by the Paris Public Charity Board.

The latest issue of the Government Bulletin of the Board of Labor shows that during the month of October, 1912, fifty new trade unions were started, with a total of 4,365 members. But on the other hand 59 unions were disolved and they had a toal membership of 9,290. Thus, in one month, syndicalism lost nearly 5,000 supporters.

These figures show in a startling manner the gradually increasing decay of syndicalism throughout France during the past two years, and is one of the most interesting features of French social life. The most marked decline is in the most agitated centers. For instance, in Marseilles alone nine syndicates died a natural death last October. It is to be remembered that that city has rarely been without a strike of more or less serious proportions.

The Paris City Council, by a large majority, has decided to proceed with the work of extending the Boulevard Haussmann from its present terminus at the Rue Taibout to the point at which the Rue Drouot joins the Boulevard Montmartre.

The improvement will involve the demolition of a large amount of property in the Boulevard des Italiens, the Rues Chauchat, Lepeletier, Lafitte and Taitbout, and will involve an expediture of about 25 million franks ($5,000,000).

The execution of the scheme is to be sold as a concession to a contractor, who it is expected will secure a large profit from the resales of the property involved.

It is now exactly 55 years since the work of constructing the Boulevard Haussmann was begun. It was projected by the famous Baron Haussmann as part of the imposing scheme which cost Parisians 843 million franks ($166,600,000), but helped to make Paris the city of noble thoroughfares which it is to day. The place de l'Etoile and the splendid series of twelve wide avenues which radiate from t was only a part of the Baron's scheme.

Underlying it all was Napoleon III.'s desire to retain the military control of Paris. The narrow tortuous thoroughfares of old Paris had proved ideal for street fighting in the revolutions of 1830 and 1848. The new, broad, straight avenues and boulevards were laid regardless of expense, largely because they would enable the military authorities if well supplied with grape shot to easily overcome a rebellious populace

Modern dances from America, including the turkey trot, the bunny hug, the chicken flip, the grape-vine and the tango have invaded the Alps and have given rise to comment not always favorable. They have not been welcomed, however, by a majority of the tourists, many of whom have protested against their being allowed at the inns and hotels, which cater largely to transient trade.

As a result of these protests and others received from native guests various Alpine hotels have posted in their salons notices forbidding such dances.

PARENTS ASTOUNDED AT SCOUT MOVEMENT.

Hundreds of parents sat astounded last night in the Ottawa street M. E. church at the revelations of the boy scout movement, made by Attorney H. Garnsey, who is a local scoutmaster.

The adult portion of the audience had unfolded before them in picture and in word the inside story of the organization, both local and international.

They learned that their boys have learned more of the commonest and most important things of life than their elders ever knew. Not only things of nature, but culture, the rights of others, kindness, helpfulness, work, has the youth been taught and so he continues to be taught.

"Boys are all right," said Mr. Garnsey in effect, "give them something to do, something worth while. Here in this picture the boy climbs a tree by the aid of a temporary ladder made of the boys' staffs or stocks. Here the boys are resuscitating a person rescued from drowning.

"Here is a boy taking care of another who has broken a leg. Any of these boys can take care of any case of broken bone, if it is not a compound fracture, but he knows even what that is. This picture shows the boys building a temporary bridge without the use of nails.

"In case of a crippled person they know exactly what to do, and make stretchers of their coats. The boys are taught how to carry others on their shoulders, and this picture tells the story. It is a matter of knowing how to do it."

Hundreds of things worth while, the boys are taught. In conclusion, Mr. Garnsey said he makes welcome every boy, boy scout or otherwise who comes to his house. "I don't watch him. I make the boys understand that it is their home as much as mine, and so nothing is ever damaged," he said.

"If you want to help the boy scout movement, throw your homes open. You will not regret it."—Joliet News.

CAUSE OF GRIPPE

How to Escape Its Dangerous After Effects.

With so much grippe prevalent this winter a few words of advice regarding its cause and treatment will not be out of place.

Grippe is an infectious disease easily taken when the system is in a tired or run-down condition.

The best means of prevention are to keep the blood in good healthy condition, and if the system gets into a weak, run-down condition, take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic.

A lady from Long Beach, N. J., says: Grippe left me in a nervous, weakened, run-down condition. After taking three bottles of Vinol I am better and stronger than I have been for years, and I cheerfully recommend Vinol to all who have suffered from the grippe and need strength." (Name furnished on request)"

We have never sold in our store such a valuable strength creator and health restorer for the convalescent, the weak and run-down as Vinol, and your money will be returned if it does not do all we claim for it. Lee P. Allcott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

STANDARDIZATION OF PARTS.

Eli Whitney's Scheme Revolutionized the Manufacturing Business.

The system of the standardization of parts, now so universal, originated with Eli Whitney, the inventor of the cotton gin, when he undertook to make muskets. The government gave him a contract in 1793 for 10,000 stands of arms, although he had no "plant" for their manufacture. He built a small factory in New Haven, Conn., and began work, but found a great obstacle in the difficulty of getting good workmen, especially those capable of acting as foremen under his novel methods.

His plan, as is pointed out by George Iles in a recent original study of Whitney's achievements, was to make of his factory a single huge machine. In an armory before Whitney's day each man, highly skilled, produced by himself a distinct part of a musket. This division of labor Whitney supplanted by so apportioning work that little or no skill was demanded. He separated the various tasks and at each of these operations kept a group busy. For their assistance he simplified each operation and introduced three aids since indispensable in manufacture—drilling by templets or patterns, filing by jigs or guides and milling irregular forms.

From first to last a model musket was copied with precision so that every lock, for example, was exactly like every other among thousands. When all the parts needed to form a weapon were assembled they united much superior to a musket formed on any other plan. In case of repair a new part exactly fitted the place of an old part and at a trifling cost.

In order to accomplish his purpose and carry out his contract, whose execution was much prolonged, Whitney was obliged to invent new tools and machines at every step, none of which was patented. By doing so he not only greatly improved the finish and accuracy of his guns and the speed of their manufacture, but so impressed the value of the idea of standardization upon the minds of manufacturers that it was presently applied in other trades and has long since become the rule in manufacturing.—Harper's.

A CHAMPION SPELLER.

Horace Greeley Was a Wonder When Only Six Years of Age.

No champion of the old time spelling matches, perhaps, ever excelled Horace Greeley. He was, in fact, a spelling prodigy. What would the boys and girls of today, who grumble over their daily stint of twenty words, think of a child not yet six years old who could actually spell every word in the language! That is what the young Horace is said to have been able to do.

His schooling began in his fourth year, and the art of spelling at once became a passion with him. In school and out he kept incessantly at its study. Hour after hour he would lie on the floor, spelling over all the difficult words he could find in the few books that the family owned.

The fame of his prowess spread. Naturally Horace was the first one chosen at spelling matches. He had a lisping, whining voice and spelled his words with the utmost confidence. Sometimes in winter, when the snowdrifts were so deep that one of the big boys had to take him to the schoolhouse on his back, the little white haired fellow would drop asleep between turns. When his word came round his neighbor would nudge him anxiously. He would wake, spell his word and drop asleep again at once.

So great was the boy's reputation as a student of unusual powers that the selectmen of a neighboring town, in passing a rule forbidding the attendance at the local school of any pupil from outside the township, honored him by adding the clause, "Excepting only Horace Greeley."—Youth's Companion.

Sarcastic.

This incident is related of a Scotch doctor, new to the gun, who adventured upon a day's rabbit shooting.

Chased by the ferrets, bunny was a rather quick moving target, and the medico was not meeting with the success he anticipated.

"Hang it all, man," he exclaimed impatiently to the keeper who accompanied him; "these beasts are too quick for me!"

"Aye, doctor," the pawky keeper replied, "but ye surely didna expect them tae lie still like yer patients till ye kill them?"

Yet He Liked Fresh Air.

"My husband was at a smoker Saturday night and never got home until about 1 o'clock."

"Was that why he wasn't at church Sunday morning?"

"No; he says the ventilation is so poor in church and the atmosphere always gets so heavy that he can't keep awake."—Judge.

A Surprise Coming.

Pastor's Wife — You understand, Mary, that I am only "at home" on Wednesday from 3 to 5. Mary—Yes, ma'am. Then to herself: "Mary, what a heavenly situation you have got! The mistress only at home for two hours every week!"—Exchange.

Always Late.

"Men are always late. I have waited here since 7 o'clock for my husband to come. Now it is half after 8."

"And when were you to meet him?"

"At 5 o'clock."—Lustige Blatter.

His Finish.

"He slipped on the polished floor and killed himself."

"Sort of a hardwood finish, eh?"—Princeton Tiger.

At the regular January meeting of the Morgan County Poultry association, which was held in the office of Attorney William E. Thomson in the Scott block Tuesday vening, George A. NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Baby's Voice

Every woman's heart responds to the charm and sweetness of a baby's voice, because nature intended her for motherhood. But even the loving nature of a mother shrinks from the ordeal because such a time is usually a period of suffering and danger. Women who use Mother's Friend are saved much discomfort and suffering, and their systems, being thoroughly prepared by this great remedy, are in a healthy condition to meet the time with the least possible suffering and danger. Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers; it is in no sense a remedy for various ills, but its many years of success, and the thousands of endorsements received from women who have used it are a guarantee of the benefit to be derived from its use. This remedy does not accomplish wonders but simply assists nature to perfect its work. HAIR CAME OUT BY HANDFULS

Terrible Itching. Began with Rash. Dandruff Literally Covered Scalp. Entirely Cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment Within One Month.

3002 Cass St., St. Louis, Mo.—"For five years I suffered with itching of my body and scalp. My trouble began with a rash on my lower limbs which was very annoying and my scalp was literally covered with dandruff. My hair used to come out by the handfuls and the itching of my body and scalp was terrible. I had used almost all the skin remedies on the market with no results, when I wrote for a little Cuticura Soap and Ointment and it gave me instant relief. Within one month's use of the Cuticura Soap and Ointment I was entirely cured. I cannot discover one strand of my hair coming out and I have not lost a minute of sleep since using the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, which entirely cured me of itching of my body and scalp in its worst form. I also find the Cuticura Soap a benefit in shaving." (Signed) Charles Judlin, Dec. 8, 1911.

For red, rough, chapped and bleeding hands, itching, burning palms, shapeless nails and painful finger-ends, a one-night Cuticura treatment works wonders. Soak hands, on retiring, in hot water and Cuticura Soap. Dry, anoint with Cuticura Ointment, and wear old, loose gloves during the night. DISCUSS QUESTIONS RELATED TO INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES

Many Delegates Attend Sessions of National Civic Federation in New York.

New York, Jan. 28.—Many eminent representatives of capital and labor assembled at the Hotel Astor today to exchange opinions on the important subject of "Mediation in Industrial Disputes.' ' The National Civic Federation brought them together with the intention of making the discussion of this subject the leading feature of its 13th annual meeting. The sessions will continue over tomorrow night.

Twelve years' experience in dealing with industrial disputes by the conciliation department of the National Civic Federation has convinced the members that to reduce the number of strikes to a minimum and to bring about an early setlement when a strike is not preventable, there is need of legislation—amendatory in some cases and entirely new in others.

To suggest amendments to the federal law known as the Erdman act and to formulate a model arbitration law that might be adopted in all the states are the chief purposes of the present conference. The Erdman act, so far as its present scope extends, is considered a satisfactory measure. It has been successfully applied in interstate railroad disputes, but it does not at present include disputes which may arise in railway shops or in coastwise or river transportation or in express traffic, and being a federal act, it does not apply to municipal utilities which can be dealt with only by the states. The strengthening of the Erdman act and the adoption of laws along the same line by all of the states are deemed necessary. And in addition to such federal and state legislation, the conference will consider a plan for settling disputes between federal, state and municipal employes and their respective governments.

In addition to the question of settling industrial disputes by law, the delegates to the conference now in session will be asked also to devise ways and means to bring about uniform laws on other matters of general importance, such as workmen's compensation, accident prevention, pensions for federal, state and municipal employes, reform in legal regulation of the manufacture and sale of drugs and food products.

The past two years the federation has devoted much time and energy toward obtaining uniformity of state legislation and the hope is expressed that beneficial results along this line will be accomplished in the legislatures now in session in nearly all of the states. It is believed that the federation's proposed model bills drafted by experts will be of great value in furnishing material to legislative committees which have these subjects in charge.

The various questions are to be dealt with in the conference by men well qualified to speak on the subjects assigned them. Prominent among these scheduled as speakers are Andrew Carnegie, August Belmont, John Hays Hammond, Alton B. Parker, Seth Low, Samuel Gompers, president of the Federation of Labor; Warren S. Stone, head of the International Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; James M. Lynch, president of the International Typographical union; James Duncan, vice president of the Federation of Labor; Prof. Jeremiah W. Jenks, the noted political economist of Cornell university; Austin B.Garretson, president of the Order of Railway Conductors; William C. Brown, president of the New York Central railroad; Frank Trumbull, chairman of the board of directors of the Chesapeake & Ohio railway; George B. Cortelyou, former secretary of the treasury; Albert Shaw, the well known editor and publicist; Francis Lynde Stetson, famous as a corporation lawyer; Marcus M. Marks, manufacturer and an authority on subjects of labor and conciliation, and Talcott Williams, head of the school of journalism of Columbia university

Dr. C. W. Carson, who has visited this city for every month for almost fourteen years, will be at the Dunlap hotel, Jacksonville, on Wednesday, February 5th.

As the doctor treats only chronic diseases, his years of experience have made him very proficient in the diagnosis and treating of his specialties. His consultations are free and private, and if you have a disease that has hung on for a long time, it will pay you to call on him and let him examine you and tell you what can be done.

WAKENED BY A GHOST.

A Woman's Startling Experience In a Washington Hotel.

From his diary under date of October, 1890, Sir Henry Lucy quotes in the Cornhill Magazine a remarkable ghost story which was told to him by a "lady bearing a name highly honored in the United States." The incident happened some years previously. The lady was at Washington at a time when congress was sitting and all the hotels were full. On applying for a room at the hotel which she was accustomed to patronize with her husband she was told that the house was full. After some little hesitation the clerk, observing her distress, undertook that a room should be got ready for her. It was a small, plainly furnished room on the sixth floor.

She went to bed early and slept soundly until she was awakened by the sensation of a hand touching her face and a voice which cried with piteous accent, "Oh, mother, mother!" She was profoundly startled, but, arguing with herself that it was only a dream, went to sleep again. Again she was awakened by a hand that nervously stroked her face and the blood curdling cry, "Oh, mother, mother!" She got up and lighted a candle. A chambermaid came with a startled look. The visitor related her experience.

"Yes, ma'am," said the chambermaid. "I told them they ought not to have put you in the room. He was only carried out an hour before you came."

"Who was carried out?" said the lady.

"Why, the young man who was lying here for a fortnight in delirium tremens and died a couple of days ago. He was always stretching out his hands, feeling for something and crying, 'Oh, mother, mother!'"

STRONG UPTURN IN STOCK MARKET

PRICES OF MOST OF LEADING STOCKS WERE MARKED UP ONE TO TWO POINTS.

Much Business is Done During Session and Level of Prices Was Well Maintained—American Canning Issues Unusually Active.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, Jan. 28.—Wall street took a more cheerful view of stock market conditions today. Prices of most of the leading stocks were marked up 1to 2 points, with a number of much larger gains in special instances. Considerable more business was done in the first hour of trading than during the entire session of yesterday and though the pace slackened later the higher level of prices was well maintained. American Canning issues were unusually active and scored the most conspicuous advances of the day.

Bullish impulses from several quarters contributed to the quota of stock market information which shaped sentiment among more hopeful lines. The railroad list was strengthened by excellent reports for December of several large western systems including Union Pacific, Northern Pacific and Northwestern. Formation of the International Harvester corporation was construed in the Wall street point of view as placing the harvester interests yesterday in more favorable position, notwithstanding the statement from Washington that this action would not alter the aspect of the government's proceedings. Renewed activity of large speculative interests in the shape of bullish manipulations of special stocks helped to stimulate the market. Most potent of all of the direct influences was the tenor of Governor Sulzer's message to the legislature dealing with stock exchange legislation. The message was generally regarded as moderate in tone, despite the protest voiced by the stock exchange authorities and went far toward relieving the uneasiness which has been felt concerning the possible character of state legislation. How largely today's movement was the result of these influences rather than of technical market conditions was a matter of conjecture. Some traders took the view that the short interest was of unwielding proportions and that the advance was due primarily to this condition. It was a significant feature of the trading that when the list showed a tendency to recede once or twice during the day business came almost to a standstill, indicating that stocks were being firmly held. The extent of the short interest apparently has made the market sensitive to bullish influences.

GRAIN MARKET TRADING DULL

WHEAT AND OATS STEADY; CORN AND PROVISIONS DECLINED.

Reselling of Wheat in France Reflecting in Foreign Market Quotations Brought About Selling in Chicago Market Early.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Wheat and oats were steady today, while corn and provisions declined. Trade was generally dull. Reselling of wheat in France reflected in the quotations from Paris and Liverpool, brought about selling in this market early. There was not a great deal of it but at that it was over-done and later the early loss was more than recovered. There were rumors of export sales at Missouri river points and these were denied as persistently as they arose, while the European visible decreased. Winnipeg reported that only one per cent of the crop remains in farmer's hands, the crop having been marketed with remarkable celerity owing to fine weather.

Corn fluctuated nervously between narrow limits, but the main influence in a net decline of ⅜@½c for May the unloading of a local long line of which process shorts took advantage. Oats was sold on a small scale by pit traders while demand came from commission houses. When shorts discovered the nature of the support they covered and the early decline was recovered.

Provisions started higher on the commission house demand but there was plenty for sale on the bulge and the close was at a net decline of five cents. Packers were said to be selling short.

WELL KNOWN SPRINGFIELD MAN DIED SUDDENLY TUESDAY

H. Clay Wilson Succumbed to Stroke of Apoplexy.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 28.—H. Clay Wilson, prominent Republican and several times candidate for congress in this district, died suddenly of apoplexy this afternoon.

Mr. Wilson seemed to be in his ordinary state of health this morning. He went down town and called at the Bunn Grocery company's building on a matter of business. About 10:30 o'clock he completed his business and started for the door.

Without warning he wavered and soon became unconscious. An ambulance was called and he was hurried to his home, where medical aid was summoned. He never regained consciousness. His family was with him at the time of his death.

Mr. Wilson was born in Daviess county, Ky., July 2, 1859. He was a son of John J. and Sarah Wilson. He was educated at Central Normal college in Indiana, having been brought up on a farm and alternating work in it with teaching. He opened his law office in Springfield in 1890 after having been a resident of the city for two years. He was a strong Republican and served as a member of the general assembly of Illinois during 1893 and 1894 and was the Republican nominee for congress from the twenty-first district in 1908, 1910 and 1912, but was defeated. He founded the Henry Clay Wilson political school in 1904.

He was married in 1888 to Pheressa McCoyne, who with five children, Roscoe, Reed, Jennie, Charles and Robert, survive him.

CANTON WILL PLAY J. H. S. SATURDAY NIGHT

Fans Will Witness One of the Fastest Games of Basketball Seen in Strawn's Hall—J. H. S. Band Will Probably Play.

If the plans, now underway at the Jacksonville high school are worked out, the basketball fans will not only witness the big struggle between the Canton high school team and J. H. S. but they will also be given an opportunity to hear the high school band in their initial performance.

The game with Canton promises to be one of the fastest ever witnessed on the local floor this season. The truth of the matter is that Canton has basketball for breakfast, dinner and supper and their team has been in action since September, so the visiting quintet will come with high hopes and much science. Canton, it will be remembered was the champion team in the tournament held here last season.

Along with Canton's fond hopes is that of Coach Buland's team, which has been leaving no stone unturned to win Saturday's contest. Frye will be back in the game and he will add strength to the squad. While Jacksonville has not played the strongest teams of the country thus far this season, the men have showed up well and ought to be able to take a good measurement of the Fulton county lads.

The high school band held another rehersal last night and while it has not been officially announced, it is understood from good authority that the band will make its initial appearance the night of the basketball game. The new musical organization is in the hands of Principal Gore and it is expected that a dozen or more will play Saturday night.

The students at the high school expect to hold a mass meeting in preparation for the contest, and basketball stock local is at a good premium.

AT THE GRAND.

A large audience was present at the Grand last night to witness "The Chocolate Soldier" an opera bouffe in three acts. It is given under the direction of F. C. Whitney and is based on George Bernard's Shaw's "Arms and the Man." The cast of characters seemed to be well balanced and the costumes and scenery were commendable. Lieut. Bumerli as "The Chocolate Soldier", a part played by Charles Purcell was interpreted well while Mascha, the winsome miss was a favorite with the audience. Capt. Massakroff, played by J. Russell Powell added life to the production. The music was tuneful and the audience was appreciative.

Dr. Sipes has moved his residence and office from 340 East State to 209 East College street.

SUFFRAGISTS RESUME MILITANT TACTICS

BREAK WINDOWS IN GOVERNMENT OFFICES--MANY UNDER ARREST

Attempt to Destroy Mail By Pouring Liquid Into Boxes—Crowds Have Little Sympathy for Women and Some are Roughly Handled.

LONDON, JAN. 28.—As a protest against the withdrawl of the franchise bill by the government, the suffragists resumed their militant tactics tonight. While a deputation, which the chancellor of the excheque David Lloyd-George had refused to see until tomorrow morning, was trying to force its way into parliament against a force of police and the members were being placed under arrest for resisting the officers, other bands of women went through white hall breaking windows of the government offices and through Cockspur street, where a great plate glass window in the establishment of Shipping companies was ruthlessly smashed.

The women also visited Oxford, Regent and other streets in the shopping district, where similiar damage was done. Later, mail boxes were attacked, quantities of liquid being poured into them. In the outlying suburbs too, the women took steps to bring the cause before the house by damaging property.

Most all of the police stations had one or more prisoners charged with destroying property.

In White Hall the police though busy protecting property and arresting window smashers, had the greatest difficulty in protecting the women from an unruly crowd of youths who gathered and husteled every women wearing the suffragist colors. In several cases the women were roughly handled. An attempt to duck four of them in the fountain in Trafalgar Square was frustrated by police who had to ride through the crowd. The entire deputation of 21 women, who attempted to make their way into the house of commons to interview Chancellor Lloyd-George were arrested. The prisoners included Mrs. Drummond and Sylvia Pankhurst. The deputation marched under police escort to parliament. When told the chancellor of the exchequer could not see them until tomorrow the women threw themselves at the police who stood six deep across the entrance and a scramble followed in which Mrs. Drummond and another woman were either thrown or fell to the ground. The police gave the women several chances to withdraw quietly but as they refused all were arrested. The crowd showed little sympathy for the suffragists whom they tried to jostle as they were being led to the station by the police.

REOCMMENDS DAYLIGHT SALOON CLOSING LAW

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 28—Late today the house committee on the suppression of intemperance voted to recommend the passage of a saloon daylight closing law. The bill will be reported back to the floor of the house early tomorrow.

The bill, if it becomes a law, will cut down the saloon day by five hours, opening and closing at 7 o'clock instead of at 5 a. m. and 10 p. m.

A second and radical change in the liquor laws made its appearance in the house when Representative Brockway introduced a measure abolishing the present permit system for drug stores. If the Brockway measure becomes a law, drug stores will be allowed to keep raw alcohol only and will be able to sell it only upon a physicians prescription.

LARGE AUDIENCE PRESENT SECOND NIGHT OF REVIVAL

Dr. J. W. Miller Preaches Timely Sermon on the Subject of "God's Call For Volunteers."

A fine revival spirit was manifested at the special religious services held at Grace M. E. church Tuesday night, the second day of the meetings. The large chorus choir was led by Mr. Max Swarthout and the organ was in charge of Mr. Donald Swarthout. The singing was inspiring and among the ministers present to assist in the meeting were Dr. F. A. McCarty, Dr. J. R. Harker and Rev. G. W. Flagge.

"God's call for Volunteers" was the subject of Dr. Miller's sermon, taking his text from Exodus, 32-26, "Who is on the Lord's side." He said in part:

The great Hebrew who raised this inquiry had just spent forty days with the Almighty in the mount. He came down the side of the mountain with the most precious laws ever given to the race, written by the fingers of God. He had been prepared to receive these majestic laws and bear them to the people. His mind was full of high thoughts and expectations, when to his sorrow and disappointment he found the people dancing around a golden image in the form of a calf. The wrath of God came upon him and he broke the image and ground it to powder, scattered it upon the water and made the people drink it. Then he cried "Who is on the Lord's side." Immediately the tribe of Levi rallied to his standard and marching through the camp slew 3,000 rebelious men in one day. Again the great question is raised. What does it mean to be on the Lord's side? It means open allegiance. No man can meet his obligations to God by secret allegiance. We can have little influence for His kingdom unless we give the Lord our service and open, loyal adherence. It means sacrifice and courage. These Levites were called upon to slay friends and neighbors that day. It means that men who are loyal to God today must be willing to go to their friends and neighbors and present the claims of the kingdom to them.

Rev. Mr. Miller spoke of a young Chinese preacher whose parents and sisters and brother were slain by the boxers, asking that he be sent to the very people that slew his father that he might win them to Christ and show them how a Christian can forgive.

The Lord's side is the side of good resources. The hosts invisible are as much on the side of the followers as in the night when they encamped on the hills around Dotan to defend the old prophet. The ministering angels are as ready to help now as when Christ said He could pray the Father and He would send twelve legions of angels to help Him. The Lord's side is the side of victory.

It is the side of honor and blessing. The tribe of Levi was forever after honored with the priestly offices and the service of the temple for their heroic loyalty in the camp that terrible day. God does not fail to honor in the world the men and women who are faithful to Him. But is it not true that He will honor His faithful servants in the world to come also?

How thankful we are that the situation tonight is vastly different from the situation with the Leavites. We are asked to go out to win not with the sword but with gentleness and sympathy our unsaved friends and neighbors. No one is to be put to death, but are rather to be shown the way of life. How this work should find us all ready and glad to volunteer our services today.

STRAUSS' EMPORIUM.

WILL PUSH ENDOWMENT CAMPAIGN FOR WOMANS' COLLEGE

Dr. Hancher Met With Workers Tuesday—Must Have $15,000 More Here To Make Sure the Strawn Pledge.

Dr. J. W. Hancher of the Board of Education of the M. E. church came to the city yesterday for a conference with Dr. Harker and his coworkers in the matter of securing the necessaary endowment for the Womans College. At 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon Dr. Hancher met informally at the college a large number of those who have taken part in the campaign thus far. A clear statement was made by Dr. Harker showing that there have been 431 contributors in Jacksonville and that $45,000 has been raised here. Of this sum the $10,000 pledged by Julius Strawn is conditional upon $60,000 being raised in Jacksonville and Morgan county by March 1st.

A situation which is serious but not discouraging therefore confronts the college and the committee of workers. Fifteen thousand dollars must be forth coming from some source before March 1st or Mr. Strawn's big pledge will be lost. Although the roads are not in good condition. It was decided yesterday that a systematic campaign will be speedily inaugurated for securing a goodly portion of this sum from residents of the county outside of Jacksonville. Some of those present at the conference yesterday agreed to give a certain number of days to the work and still others will join in so that every resident within a radius of ten miles of Jacksonville at least will be canvassed. So far as possible the solicitors will go out into the country and personally see these men and women and in other cases appointments in Jacksonville will be made by telephone and in emergency instances the soliciting will be done by telephone.

When every dollar possible has been obtained outside of Jacksonville if there is still a deficiency, then active campaigning will be resumed in Jacksonville. The stuation is acute and every friend of the college should rally to its support as never before.

We take this method of thanking our many friends and neighbors for their many deeds of kindness during the sickness and after the death of our dear mother and for the beautiful flowers sent. Their kindness shall never be forgotten.

Mrs. Nina Kropp,
Mrs. Eliza Douglass,
Mr. and Mrs. Chas Jackson.
